Key Takeaways

What you can do to raise more money for your organization

Three Keys To Fundraising Success

The background image shows a person from behind, wearing a blue shirt and a dark beanie, writing on a whiteboard. The whiteboard features a hand-drawn diagram of a fundraising funnel. The funnel starts with a box labeled 'EVENT' on the left, which leads to a box labeled 'DONOR'. From 'DONOR', the funnel branches into two paths: one leading to a box labeled 'MAJOR DONORS' and another leading to a box labeled 'MONTHLY DONORS'. Both 'MAJOR DONORS' and 'MONTHLY DONORS' lead to a final box on the right labeled 'EQUITY'. There are also some handwritten notes and arrows around the diagram, including one pointing to 'EQUITY' with the text 'Other things - like money - like that'. The diagram is drawn in white on a light-colored surface.
